Sheep Market Report

22ND FEBRUARY 2023 – A YARDING OF 3265 SHEEP & LAMBS, WITH 1570 LAMBS AND THE BALANCE SHEEP.

Similar size yarding to last fortnight with less sheep and a better run of lambs for all competition. An excellent yarding of heavy lambs penned with the addition of a southern processor. The gap between the best finished lambs and secondary types widened even more. The best heavy lambs sold $10-15 dearer while the secondary types were firm to $8 cheaper. Sheep lost all ground that was made last fortnight to be $10-15 cheaper for best types and $15-18 cheaper on secondary sheep.

Cattle Market Report

22ND FEBRUARY 2023 - 620 CATTLE YARDED

A good run of cattle yarded last week at Dunedoo with all buyers in attendance. Yearling cattle to the trade were either side of firm while XB feeders with weight continued to show strong competition to be 5-8c/kg dearer. Export cattle were 8-10c/kg cheaper, while cows saw strong competition to be 5-8c/kg dearer.

CARE FOR OUR RIVERS

JOKE OF THE WEEK!

Sid was travelling down a country road in his native Yorkshire, England when he saw a crowd of people gathering outside a farmhouse.

It was a cold November afternoon, so he stopped and asked Farmer Ellis why such a large crowd of men was gathered there.

The farmer replied, 'Jo's donkey kicked his mother-in-law and she died.'

'Well,' replied the man, 'She must have had a lot of friends.'

'Nope,' said Farmer Ellis.'

We all just want to buy his donkey.'
