Sheep Market Report

29TH NOVEMBER 2023 - A YARDING OF 1520 SHEEP & LAMBS, WITH 780 LAMBS AND THE BALANCE SHEEP.

With welcome rain over the last week, numbers still remained low for the last sale in November. Lamb numbers remained similar to that of last sale with a better top end available but still a mixed yarding. A complete field of buyers were at the sale but not all were active. The major processors competed strongly to secure numbers.

The best of the extra heavies were $20-30/head dearer on the last sale and attracted the most competition. Most sold from $150-184/head or 530-605c/kg dressed. Not many trade lambs available with mostly mixed types being penned. They were also $10-15/head with most selling between $90-100/head or 480-540c/kg dressed.

Mutton also bounced to be $15-30/head dearer than our last sale a fortnight ago. The best of the heavy crossbred sheep made from $50-99/head to be around 180-220c/kg dressed.

Not many merino sheep penned which made them hard to quote but the secondary light sheep also rose $12-18/head. The ram market still remains very flat with very little interest from any buyer. Best merino rams made $20/head while the best xb rams made $10/head.

Cattle Market Report

29TH NOVEMBER 2023 - 900 CATTLE YARDED

Another outstanding yarding of cattle this fortnight with plenty of yearlings to suit the feeders and processors. The usual buyers were present including the return of a northern processor who has been absent for a long period. All buyers were keen to join market share resulting in a dearer market. Yearling steers and heifers to suit the feeder were 20-40c/kg dearer and more in places with middle to heavy weight steers selling from 280-300c/kg with the heifers from 260-313c/kg all going as feeders. Cattle to suit the trade were 10-20c/kg dearer with the heavy weight steers making 270-290c/kg and heifers 235-270c/kg.

Heavy steers and heifers over 500kg sold 20-30c/kg dearer with steers selling from 240-260c/kg and heifers 225-250c/kg. The cows in limited numbers sold dearer to top 230c/kg with 3-4 score selling 200-230c/kg. The best heavy bull made 260c/kg.

JOKE OF THE WEEK!

Pat, his wife and their 9-year-old son went shopping in Dublin for the first time. Pat had never been to Dublin and always lived in the countryside.

Pat and his son were totally amazed by nearly everything they saw. But it was a shiny silver wall that opened and closed magically that really got their attention.

The boy asked his father, Pat,
What is this dad?

Pat (who had never seen an elevator before) responded,

Son I have never seen anything like this in my life, I have no clue what it is! While

Pat and his son were staring with amazement, a fat old lady came to the moving walls and pressed a button. The walls opened, and the lady got between them and got into a small room.

The walls magically closed, and the boy and his father watched in amazement as the small numbers above the wall lit up sequentially.

They continued to watch until it reached the last number, and the numbers began to light in reverse order.

The door opened, and a young blonde stepped out.

Pat, not taking his eyes off the young woman, said quietly to his son...

Go get your mother
